MEMORANDUM FOR: Inspector General

SUBJECT : HSC Request for Information (75/1146)

25X1A

REFERENCE : [] 28 July 1975 Memorandum to the Deputy Inspector General

25X1

1. Jack Boos supplied the following comments on [] points:

Question 1. The 1975 column of the 1976 budget would satisfy the HSC request.

Question 2. An estimate of the amount of money would be acceptable. It should be labeled as such.

Question 3. Numbers will suffice. Break out where the people are or where they came from.

Question 4. The estimate of the 1975 budget would satisfy this request.

Question 5. The reply need merely state our reasons for being unable immediately to release the information. (Are we going to check with the House and Senate Committees and with OMB to see if they object to our releasing this information?)

Question 6. Boos understands that these letters did not exist before Fiscal Year 1975. They should be sanitized for sources and methods and made available if possible.

Question 7. The reply should state that this information is subject to the same problem as in Question 5 and will be resolved simultaneously.

Question 8. Request Task Force check with OMB and provide the information for HSC.
